MY ASSETS:

I feel that my assets are that I am very dedicated and loyal. I am a quick worker and learner. I finish things. I am willing to listen and learn. I do not take the lead from others, only if there needs to be a leader. Otherwise, I will apply for the lead position. I am well adverse in many different areas of the industry, a "jack of all trades" so to speak. I am front-end and back-end design and development and able to translate. I work well in a team environment as well as solo. I believe the little details make the best part to the big picture.
